CONSTRUCTION ZONE

Construction Zone at Entrepreneur Expo

March 16, 2007

The majority of the remaining construction bid packages will be issued by Manhattan Construction in early summer 2007. These packages include interior finishout work, specialties, appliances, furnishings and remaining site work. An updated procurement schedule listing the upcoming bid packages is maintained on Manhattan's website at www.manhattanconstruction.com.

To advertise the upcoming bid opportunities to the M/WBE community, the City of Arlington teamed with the City of Fort Worth to present Construction Zone at Entrepreneur Expo on March 16, 2007. On behalf of the City of Arlington, Mayor Cluck welcomed attendees to Construction Zone and City representatives discussed procurement, construction and public works opportunities. Manhattan Construction and K Strategies Group discussed the upcoming Stadium opportunities and Glorypark representatives presented an overview of their project.

Construction Zone also included presentations from the City of Fort Worth and their major general contractors performing tax incentive financing projects. Along with presenters from the Fort Worth Metropolitan Black Chamber of Commerce, Hispanic Contractors Association, Black Contractors Association and the Construction Development Alliance to discuss resources for M/WBE contractors.

Construction Zone was a great success with over 150 participants and Entrepreneur Expo exceeded 2500 participants.
